- Definition and distinction between economic growth and development.
- Underdevelopment and its characteristics.
- Solutions to underdevelopment.
- Strategies for economic development.

Economic Growth: A country is said to achieve economic growth when there is an increase in the volume of National output (National Income) arising from an expansion in production. When there is economic growth, it shows in the form of an increase in income level, an expansion in the labour force, an increase in the total capital stock of the country and a higher volume of trade and consumption.

While Economic development means economic growth coupled with the improvement in the living standard of the people of the country. This arises from equitable distribution of the National income. Economic development reveals all aspects of economic activities and emphasizes more on distribution of facilities between various areas.

CHARACTERISTICS OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

1. Improvement in the general welfare of the people.
2. Equitable distribution of the National income

Before June 2004, there were 89 banks in Nigeria with 3,382 branches network. The banking sector was characterized with structural and operational weaknesses such as:

1. Low capital base: Dominance of a few banks.
2. Insolvency and illiquidity
3. Over dependence on public sector deposit and foreign exchange trading.
4. Poor asset quality.
5. Weak corporate governance – A system with low depositor confidence
6. Banks that could not effectively support the real sector of the economy at 24% of GDP, compared to Africa average of 78% and 272% for developed countries.

The professor Charles Soludo led Central Bank, reduce the banks to 25 with capital base of N25 billion this led to merger and acquisition in the banking industries.

The aim of re-capitalization of banks includes:

1. To ensure strong financial base.
2. To increase deposits' confidence in banks.
3. To enhance liquidity and solvency of the banks.
4. To increase loan to real sectors.
5. To encourage banks to practice real retail banking instead of depending on public sectors fund.

EVALUATION

2. Discuss Charles Soludo's effort to increase the capital base of Banks.

INDIGENIZATION; NATIONALIZATION; COMMERCIALIZATION AND PRIVATIZATION POLICY

INDIGENIZATION

Indigenization may be defined as a process through which the government through the used of law increase the level of participation of citizens (indigenes) of a country in the ownership and management of business enterprises and the industrial sectors of the country's economy.

The objective of the indigenization policy is to give Nigerians increased involvement in her ownership , control and management of business enterprise that were formerly dominated by foreigners in the country. The fulcrum of the policy was the Nigerian. Enterprises Promotion Decree (1972)

The NEPD (1977) grouped businesses under three categories

- A. The first group consists of businesses reserved exclusively for Nigerians (i.e. 100% reserved for Nigerians) e.g. manufacturing of blocks, candles etc
- B. The second group consist of businesses which can be undertaken by foreigners so long as Nigerians hold or have not less than 60 per cent participating shares eg banking, insurance, construction, mining, beer brewing
- C. The third group consist of businesses which are open to foreign investments provided Nigerians hold not less than 40 per cent participating shares eg textile, tobacco and drug manufacturing hotels, synthetic resins, distilling etc.

The NEPD (1992) was revised in 1977

OBJECTIVES OF THE INDIGENIZATION POLICY

1. To promote and encourage the participation of indigenes of the country actively and effectively in the industrial sector of their economy
2. To reduce foreign control of the country's economy
3. To promote industrialization through the use of indigenous technology
4. To reduce the country dependency on foreigners
5. Creation of employment opportunities for indigenes
6. To encourage local retention of profits made
7. To avoid neo-colonialism and imperialism
8. To improve the income and standard of living of the people
9. To ensure economic stability in the country
